

MINNEAPOLIS JEWISH

HUMOR

FESTIVAL
FEBRUARY 25–MARCH 7, 2010

The 2010 Minneapolis Jewish Humor Festival will combine one-act plays, one-person shows, music performance, stand-up routines, improvisational comedy, story-telling, film, visual art and more—all celebrating the Jewish contribution to the world of humor.

Humor Across Cultures

STEVIE RAY'S
IMPROV COMPANY

Thursday, March 4 at 7:30pm

Presented in collaboration with Stevie Ray's Improv Company

“What’s so funny?” Ever wonder what makes people laugh across the border? Join us for an evening of exploration of Russian, American, and “Jewish” humor, and take a peek at what makes people laugh. You might just find out how similar we all are! Enjoy comedy performance hosted by Stevie Ray, music performance from Russian folk group, Belozer’e, as well as readings and lively discussion. You can even bring your favorite joke to share!

Ticket: $10, includes light reception following the event

All events take place at the Sabes JCC, 4330 S Cedar Lake Road, Minneapolis, MN 55416
