

The American VOICE of the Soviet Jews a new film

(pictured: Yakov Rabinovich, photo © 2009, Kamil Dadashev)

They survived World War II & the Holocaust.

They outlived Stalin's barbarism.

They experienced the Cold War—
from the other side.

Now, they are rebuilding their lives, right here in Minnesota.

These are their remarkable stories.

Premiere!

7:00 p.m., Tues., 6/8/2010
Minnesota History Center
345 Kellogg Blvd. W., St. Paul

6:00 p.m. gallery tour—
"Minnesota's Greatest Generation:
The Depression, The War, The Boom"

Post-screening discussion with filmmakers & members of local
Russian-speaking, Jewish community

Free

& much more...

Historic Fort Snelling World War II Weekend

10 a.m.-5 p.m., 6/13/10

Travel back to the World War II era and learn about Minnesota's Soviet Jewish veterans.

Part of a special weekend devoted to Minnesota's Greatest Generation.

"Profiling: exploring the faces of diversity within the Jewish community"

Visual work from 24 artists, incl. Victor Bloomfield, Igor Dadashev, & Kamil Dadashev

5/6/10 - 6/24/10

Tychman Shapiro Gallery, Sabes Jewish Community Center

Jewish Historical Society of the Upper Midwest Exhibit: World War II Tales from the Eastern Front

Interviews with Jewish Russian veterans and civilians now living in the Twin Cities

Opens 5/6/10

Lobby, Sabes Jewish Community Center & online at www.jhsum.org

Jewish Community Action's Annual Celebration

honoring VOICE Community Building Initiative

5:30 p.m., Sun., 5/23/10

Sabes Jewish Community Center

community*building*initiative

Jewish Community Action

MINNEAPOLIS JEWISH FEDERATION

Jewish Community Center of the Greater St. Paul Area

Minnesota History Center

Jewish Historical Society of the Upper Midwest

SABES JEWISH COMMUNITY CENTER